St. Mary's Eucharistic Adoration

Weekly on Thursdays.

Understood simply, Eucharistic Adoration is adoring or honoring the Eucharistic Presence of Christ. During Eucharistic Adoration, we "watch and wait", we remain "silent" in His Presence and open ourselves to His Graces which flow from the Eucharist.

Stop in for a few minutes or stay for an extended time.

"Come to Jesus, just as you are."

A few photo and video reminders to ensure reverence to Jesus in the Eucharist:

- So that the faithful can focus on worship: no photography or videography during Masses.
- This includes First Eucharist, Confirmation, Vigil Mass, Weddings (professional photography and videography is allowed during weddings if done discreetly and in communication with the presider)
- photographs from pews can be taken during the exit procession if done in an unobtrusive manner
- photographs outside of Mass during a Sacrament like Baptism can be taken if done in an unobtrusive manner and from the pew
- Photographs outside of Mass can be taken so long as...
 - *reverence to Jesus in the Eucharist is respected
 - *photos are taken on the side of the altar or elsewhere throughout the church and not taken directly in front of the altar

Thank you in advance for your help and communication to family members to ensure reverence of sacred liturgy.
