Welcome to the 2025 Saint Mary School Annual Spring Gala,
Denim and Diamonds.

Dear friends of Saint Mary School,

It is my pleasure to welcome you to this evening of celebration and appreciation of Saint Mary School. Let us all embrace this opportunity to shine brightly for the betterment of our precious school.

Saint Mary School has long served as a hidden gem in the Humboldt community. Each day at St. Mary School, I am reminded of the beauty that surrounds me, and I am overwhelmed by the treasure that lies before me.

When you look deep within the walls of Saint Mary School, you will see a dedicated and faith-filled staff. A staff that works tirelessly to foster a community of faith steeped in the rich traditions of our Catholic faith. A staff that is committed to gospel values, truth in words and actions, and excellence in education.

When you look deep within the walls, you will witness students who are learning discipleship, service to their neighbor, love of our Lord. You will find a curriculum that is integrated in Christian values.

When you look deep within the walls, you will find a school that is committed to finding the true value of each student and developing their unique and true potential as a Child of God.

When you look deep within the walls, you quickly realize that there is so much more to Saint Mary school than meets the eye. There is faith. There is love. There is hope for our future.

Thank you to Monsignor McCoy, Father Ross, and Father Francis for your unwavering support of Saint Mary School. Thank you to our countless parents, grandparents, and stakeholders who entrust us with the education and faith formation of your most valued possession.

We pray together that Saint Mary School may continue to shine bright for generations to come.
